Our show won a - FIVE STAR REVIEW from Three Weeks for Edinburgh 2009:

Whether you're a contemporary dance fiend or one of the uninitiated wanting to take a chance, this production is perfect for the Edinburgh Fringe lover. Seven dance companies, comprising more than thirty dancers in total, each provide a snapshot of quality, quirky and downright über speciality dance. From every corner of America, Jodi Kaplan, dance producer extraordinaire, has gathered eclectic works such as Erin Elliott's 'Outlined In Black' and C. Eule Dance's 'face2face' and woven them into a recipe of pure enjoyment. Professional American dance at the Fringe has been neglected of late but plans are afoot for this wonderful dance 'festival within a festival' to return next year, and I for one will be sitting in rapture in the aisles.

The showcase was great and so very well done. We had a great time, the Theater was terrific and what a great job on getting press, presenters and audiences there. The experience was well worth it!

I just got back to New York after returning from the U.K., and I just wanted to thank you for including me in the Fringe this year. It was an incredible experience, especially being C. Eule Dance's first International Tour. I know how much work it was putting the whole thing together, and I really appreciate you all taking care of us and making sure we looked great! I hope the sponsorship works out so we can return next year!

- Caron Eule, C.Eule Dance

I wanted to tell you that I had so much fun with you in Scotland and I love working with you. Thanks for the opportunity to share my work! - Erin Elliott
