Dance Theatre

“Forceful and intricate...an inspired touch”

- The New York Times

“A flash of what is happening now...Lesniak has a great theatrical sense...The choreographer is in touch with the times in which we live”

- Dance Magazine

BRIEF SYNOPSIS:

Art of Motion Dance Theatre was founded by Lynn Needle and Olivia Galgano placing an emphasis on creating specific roles featuring each dancer's unique expressive range and honoring their interest and commitment to revitalizing the classics, and creating new, fresh and vital work reflecting the world in which we live. The company's touring programs encompass an array of dance genres, and feature collaborations in music, film, lighting, and elaborate costuming. The company tours, teaches and performs in theatres, festivals, gardens and public spaces as well as Arts-In-Education events where the company's outreach extension program has impacted thousands of school children in the metropolitan area.
