Chicago Dance Crash

"Dance Crash is a solidly established ensemble that draws on a slew of styles, from breakdance to ballet, impressively unifying them into a single aesthetic. There is a warrior, action film aspect to their work, but also plenty of emotional depth underpinned by strong technique."

- Chicago Sun-Times

"Think Matthew Bourne, but with a more primitive, ritualistic, streetwise attack."
- Dance Magazine

"Crash excels at having fun. Which isn't as easy as it might sound."
- The Chicago Tribune

BRIEF SYNOPSIS

Led by Artistic Director Jessica Deahr, Dance Crash has emerged as the premier hip hop/contemporary dance company in the Midwest. Placing an emphasis on both athleticism and accessibility, the company is most notably recognized for its combination of hip hop and concert dance techniques to create a uniquely stylized aesthetic. The company has toured extensively, sharing their highly-theatrical works and spreading their mission of blending street and classic dance on stage across the country. Featuring versatile, outrageously fun, and high-energy performers and thrilling choreography, Dance Crash is a must-see.
